INDEX TO VOLUME CLXXXII.

AUTHORS.

A

Adams, Donald S. A severe case of gas bacillus infection with recovery, 373.

Alton, B. H. Chest conditions resulting from war wounds and their surgical treatment, 369.

Appleton, Paul. Anesthesia in obstetrics, 321.

B

Balch, Franklin G., et al. The medical profession and Leonard Wood, 519.

Behan, R. J. Rupture of the rectus abdominis muscle, 660.

Benedict, Francis G. Notes on the use of the portable respiratory apparatus, 243.

Berg, Gustaf L., and Bigelow, Edward B. A milk-borne epidemic of typhoid fever and the demonstrated value of the Widal reaction in detecting a typhoid carrier, 481.

Bigelow, Edward B., and Berg, Gustaf L. A milk-borne epidemic of typhoid fever and the demonstrated value of the widal reaction in detecting a typhoid carrier, 481.

Bottomley, John T., et al. The medical profession and Leonard Wood, 519.

Brewer, Isaac W. The next step in the campaign for infant welfare. The education of the women of the nation for motherhood, 276.

Brown, Lloyd T. Bodily mechanics and nutrition, 187; Bodily mechanics and medicine, 649.

Bryant, Frederick. Malignancy and radiation. A study of the relation of the structure of cancer tissue to radiation, 263.

Bryant, John. The mental factor in the chronic intestinal invalid, 219; Chronic fatigue: diet, exercise and other factors in treatment, 629.

Butler, Charles S. Poisonous gases in warfare,133.

C

Cabot, Hugh. The annual discourse—Compulsory health insurance, state medicine, or what? 595.

Cabot, Richard C. Ether Day address—Traditions, standards, and prospects of the Massachusetts General Hospital, 287.

Champion, Merrill. School nurses and 'boards of health, 77.

Christian, Henry A. The use of alcohol in the treatment of influenza, 544.

Church, James Robb. Ductless gland in U. S. soldiers during the European War, 572.

Chute, Arthur L. The significance of hematuria; a study of one hundred personal cases, 623.

Clap, Edmund W. Report of recent progress in ophthalmology, 12.

Codman, E. A. Intestinal obstruction, 420, 451.

Cotton, Frederick J. "Flat Foot" and other static foot troubles, 1.

Coues, William Pearce. Some incidents in the life and military campaigns of Baron Larrey (1766-1842), 146; Rupture of the pectoralis minor muscle, 200; An early case of pulmonary syphilis and its cure, 520; Some surgical aspects of syphilis, 582.

Councilman, W. T. Osler in the early days at the Johns Hopkins Hospital, 341.

Courtney, J. W. Dr. Jacques Belhomme—prince of profiteers, 606.

Crookshank, F. G. A note on the history of epidemic encephalomyelitis, 34.

Crosbie, Arthur H. The treatment of gonorrhea in the male, 116.

Curtis, Francis Geo. The scarlet fever outbreak, 309.

Cushing, Harvey, et al. The medical profession and Leonard Wood, 519.

Cutler, Alice S. Doctors' fees, 492.

Cutler, Elbridge G. "Palmam Qui Meruit Ferat," 134.

D

Dana, Harold W. Difficulties in the diagnosis of meningitis, 84; Doctors in uniform, 521.

Davin, John P. Control of narcotic drug addiction, 308; Narcotic drug bills in New York legislature, 467.

Davis, Chas. H. Narcotic prescriptions should be written in ink, 520.

Davis, Frederick D. Frequency of urination, 11.

Dearborn, George Van Ness. Appetite versus therapeutics, 212, 413.

Dearborn, S. S. An unusual case of metacarpal fracture, 178.

Devine, William H. Comparative statistics on physical examinations of pupils of the Boston public schools from December 1, 1915, to March 1, 1920, and remarks with especial reference to malnutrition, 658.

Donoghue, Francis D. Compensation for eye injuries, 211.

Durrell, Thomas M. Treatment of influenza and pneumonia, 319.

E

Eisendrath, Daniel N. The clinical importance of anatomical anomalies in biliary surgery, 573.

Emerson, Nathaniel. Caesarean section, 272.

Emerson, William R. P. The malnourished child in the public school, 655.

F

Fell, Egbert W. Psychoses accompanying influenza: clinical features and prognosis, 113.

Fenton, R. L. Diet reduction with retention of protein to relieve glycosuria in diabetes mellitus, 168.

Finnegan, Francis A. Institutional control of diphtheria, 93.

Floyd, Cleaveland. The "common cold" in relation to certain microörganisms, and its treatment with bacterial vaccines, 389.

G

Gammons, Herbert F. Tissue injury an important factor in the development of tuberculosis, 119.

Gay, George W. Medical defense in New York, 594.

Goffe, J. Riddle. The origin of the intrapelvic treatment of the stump after supravaginal hysterectomy for fibroid tumor of the uterus, 53.

Goldthwait, Joel E. A case of tumor of the sacrum, 301.

Green, H. Congenital cystic kidney: Report of a case, 614.

H

Haberman, J. Victor. The new clinic. An advance movement in child welfare and race regeneration, 450.

Hawes, John B., 2nd. The present needs of the tuberculosis campaign, 161.

Hill, Lewis Webb. A critical discussion of certain phases in the development of modern infant feeding: Their influence upon present teachings, 311.

Hopkins, William T. and Trask, John W. To the members of the medical profession, 24.

367936

Hunt, Ernest L. Gas bacillus infection in civil practice, 385.

I

Irving, Frederick C. Caesarean section under local anesthesia combined with morphine and scopolamine narcosis, 578.

J

Jackson, Henry, et al. The medical profession and Leonard Wood, 519.

Johnson, A. LeRoy. The meaning of the normal, 237.

Johnson, C. K. The use of blood and blood serum in the treatment of disease, 482.

Jones, Henry A. Acute nephritis by absorption of household disinfectants, 68.

K

Kellogg, Foster S. Illegitimacy—from the standpoint of the physician, 191.

Keyes, Edward L., Jr. Prostatism, 79.

Kickham, Charles J. Two cases of foetal asphyxia with uncommon history, 94.

Kinne, Arthur L. An unusual case of myelitis, 398.

Knopf, S. Adolphus. No physician nor surgeon as yet in the hall of fame, 167.

L

Lahey, Frank H. Loss of both eyes from the exophthalmos of hyperthyroidism, 427.

Lawrence, Charles L. The relation of teeth to general health, 443.

Legg, Arthur T. Differential Diagnosis of diseases of the hip-joint in children, 602.

Levine, Samuel A. The potency of some French digitalis preparations, 64.

Lewis, D. M. The clinical bacteriology of the pneumo-streptococcus group, 240.

Lilly, Thomas E. An experience with the Schick test and toxin-antitoxin and a plea for their use in the extinction of diphtheria, 110.

Locke, Edwin A., et al. The medical profession and Leonard Wood, 519.

Lowrey, Lawson G. The technique of lumbar puncture, 479.

Lund, F. B. A case of infection of the knee-joint treated by early and continuous active motion, 631.

Lurie, William A. The medical aspect of dental irritation, 359.

M

Marble, Henry C. The technique of citrated blood transfusion, 153.

Marcy, Henry O. Anecdotes of Baron Larrey, 310.

Margeson, Reginald Dimock. Placental tumor, 200.

Marshall, Herman W. Treatment of back injuries with special reference to spinal fractures that are not associated with cord symptoms, 140; Use and abuse of mechanical supports in orthopedic conditions, 497.

McNamara, Frank P. The pathology of "influenzal pneumonia," 171.

Morrison, William Reid. The surgical treatment of acute empyema by valve drainage, provided by flap of skin, fascia, and muscle, under local and paravertebral anesthesia, 366; Fat transplantation after excision of cicatricial contraction of lower jaw, with report of a case, 529.

Morse, John Lovett. A résumé of the literature of infantile scurvy during the past two years, 428.

N

Nathan, David, Hysteria, 66.

O

O'Brien, Frederick W. Fracture of the posterior tubercle of the astragalus vs. inconstant os trigonum, 548.

O'Hare, James P. Renal function in vascular hypertension, 345.

O'Keefe, Edward Scott. Bacteriological diagnosis of diphtheria, 211.

O'Neil, Richard F. Surgery of the genito-urinary tract observed abroad as consultant in urology, base section 2, France, 213.

Ordway, Mabel D. Report of neurological sequelae of influenza in the Boston City Hospital Neurological out-patient department from July, 1918, to July, 1919, 194.

P

Pratt, Joseph H. Osler as his students knew him, 338.

Putnam, Tracy Jackson. The calorie as a unit in figuring milk modifications, 107.

Q

Quinby, William C. The product of a urological clinic, 469, 502, 525, 551.

R

Rackemann, Francis M. The specific treatment of hay fever, 295.

Rappleye, W. C. Blood plasma chlorides versus renal function, 89.

Reed, Alfred C. Social service and the clinic, 476.

Rice, Allen G. The possibilities of Carrel-Dakin technique in civil life, 174.

Richards, Robert Lewis. Size and management of state hospitals, 133.

Richardson, Edward P. Ileostomy for postoperative obstruction following appendectomy, 362.

Risley, Edward H. Perforation of the cecum. A case report, 612.

Robinson, Beverley. Appetite versus therapeutics, 310.

S

Soloman, H. C. Result of treatment of neurosyphilis general paresis and cerebrospinal syphilis. Report of patients' condition four years or more after leaving hospital, 60.

Spooner, Lesley H. The specific diagnosis and treatment of acute lobar pneumonia, 224.

Stephenson, Franklin Bache. Research in physiology in California, 544.

Stowell, Frank E. The treatment of chronic ulcers, 176.

Streeter, Edward C. Osler as a bibliophile, 335.

Sundelof, Esther M. X-ray diagnosis and therapy, 393.

Swift, Howard. The milk situation, 447.

T

Taylor, J. Dunforth. Psychical research and the physician, 610.

Taylor, J. Madison. An exploit in control of influenza. The measures used might serve as ideal to enforce during any pandemic, 601.

Todd, Mabel Elsworth. Principles of posture, 645.

Trask, John W., and Hopkins, William. To the members of the medical profession, 24.

Truesdale, P. E. The surgical treatment of peptic ulcer, 135.

Turnbull, J. A. Disturbances caused by proteins, 493.

V

Viets, Henry. A note on John Hunter at Oxford, 545.

W

Washburn, Frederic A. Helen Homans, 417.

Watson, John B. A physician needed, 185.

Wheeler, John B. Presidential address at the annual meeting of the New England Surgical Society, Boston, October 28 and 29, 1919, 25.

White, Paul D. A case showing apparent paradoxical respiratory arrhythmia of the heart, 531.

Whitehill, G. E. Maternity benefits, 184.

Whittemore, Wyman. The surgical treatment of chronic empyema, 396.

Wilcox, DeWitt G. Supporting the pelvic floor to prevent and overcome uterine prolapse, 425.

Williams, Hugh, et al. The medical profession and Leonard Wood, 519.

Williams, Tom A. Diagnosis of the lesions of the nervous system produced by violent explosions in close proximity without external lesions, 27.

SUBJECTS.

A

Acute Nephritis by absorption of household disinfectants, Henry A. Jones, M.D., 68.

Adoption of measures to insure the reporting of communicable disease, 564.

Anatomical Anomalies in biliary surgery. The clinical importance of, Daniel N. Eisendrath, A.B., M.D., 573.

American Climatological and Clinical Association, 622.

American College of Surgeons, 47.

American Medical Association, Next meeting of, 538.

Ancient Answers to present problems, 543.

Anesthesia in Obstetrics, Paul Appleton, M.D., 321.

Anti-Rabic prophylactic treatment, The importance of, 635.

Appendectomy, Ileostomy for postoperative obstruction following. Edward P. Richardson, M.D., F.A.C.S., 362.

Army Medical Service, 124.

Arrhythmia of the heart, Case showing apparent paradoxical respiratory, Paul D. White, M.D., 531.

Astragalus vs. inconstant os trigonum, Fracture of the posterior tubercle of. Frederick W. O'Brien, M.D., 548.

B

Back Injuries, Treatment of, with special reference to spinal fractures that are not associated with cord symptoms, Herman W. Marshall, M.D., 140.

Baron Larrey, Some incidents in the life and military campaigns of (1766-1842. William Pearce Coues, M.D., 146.

Belhomme, Dr. Jacques,—prince of profiteers, J. W. Courtney, M.D., 606.

Biliary Surgery, Clinical importance of anatomical anomalies in, Daniel N. Eisendrath, A.B., M.D., 573.

Biography of Sir William Osler, 497.

Blood and Blood Serum in the treatment of disease, The use of, C. K. Johnson, M.D., 482.

Blood Plasma Chlorides versus renal function, W. C. Rappleye, M.D., 89.

Bodily Mechanics and nutrition, Lloyd T. Brown, M.D., F.A.C.S., 187.

Bodily Mechanics and Medicine, Lloyd T. Brown, M.D., F.A.C.S., 649.

Book Reviews. Radio-diagnosis of pleuropulmonary affections, F. Barjon, 562; Surgical and war nursing, A. H. Barkley, M.D., 17; Lectures on sex and heredity, F. O. Bower, J. Graham Kerr, and W. E. Agar, 17; Venereal disease, C. H. Browning, M.D., D.P.H., and David Watson, M.B., C.M., 484; Oxford loose-leaf surgery, edited by F. F. Burghard, M.S., F.R.C.S., 399; IV Congress de la Asociacion Espanola de Urologia, temas oficiales, comunicaciones y discusiones, Dr. Pedro Cifuentes, 326; A textbook of pathology, Francis Delafield, M.D., and T. Mitchell Prudden, M.D., 508; War wounds of the lungs: notes on their surgical treatment at the front, Pierre Duval, 374; The practical medical series, Bernard Fantus, M.F., and William A. Evans, M.D., 633; Handbook of mental examination methods, Shepherd Ivory Franz, M.D., 17; The early treatment of war wounds, Colonel H. M. W. Gray, F.R.C.S., 277; Pye's surgical handicraft, W. H. Clayton Greene, B.A., F.R.C.S., 278; Principles and practice of roentgenological technique, I. Seth Hirsch, M.D., 302; Diseases of the nervous system. A textbook of neurology and psychiatry, Smith Ely Jelliffe, M.D., and William A. White, M.D., 537; Clinical case-taking, Robert D. Keith, M.A., M.D., 458; The autonomic functions of the personality, Edward J. Kempf, M.D., 616; The operative treatment of chronic intestinal stasis, Sir W. Arbuthnot Lane, Bart., 399; Prothèse et Chirurgie: Craniomaxillo-faciale, par J. Lebedinsky et M. Virenque, 434; Cerebrospinal fluid, Abraham Levison, B.S., M.D., 228; Military surgery of the ear, nose and throat, Hanau W. Loeb, M.D., 95; A treatise on cystoscopy and urethroscopy, Dr. Georges Luys, 458; The action of muscles, William Colin Mackenzie, M.D., 586; Health and the woman movement, C. D. Mosher, 633; Anatomy of the peripheral nerves, A. Melville Paterson, M.D., 508; A textbook of urology in men, women, and children, including urinary and sexual infections, urethroscopy and cystoscopy, Victor Cox Pedersen, M.D., 95; Human infection carriers, Charles E. Simon, B.A., M.D., 45; Studies from the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, 228; A manual of physiology, G. N. Stewart, 663; Hospital accounting and statistics, Wm. V. S. Thorn, 663; Surgical aspects of typhoid and paratyphoid fevers, A. E. Webb-Johnson, D.S.C., 633; Psychiatric-neurologic examination methods, Dr. August Wimmer, 69; Industrial nursing, Florence Swift Wright, R.N., 94.

Boston Medical Library, 98.

Botulism, 328.

C

Caesarean Section, Nathaniel W. Emerson, A.M., M.D., F.A.C.S., 272.

Caesarean Section under local anaesthesia combined with morphine and scopolamine narcosis, Frederick C. Irving, M.D., 578.

The Calorie as a unit in figuring milk modifications, Tracy Jackson Putnam, A.B., 107.

Cancer, Important facts about, 125.

Cancer, Silent gastric, with general anasarca, 156.

Carrel-Dakin Technique in civil life, Possibilities of, Allen G. Rice, M.D., 174.

Case of tumor of the sacrum, Joel E. Goldthwait, M.D., 301.

Case showing apparent paradoxical respiratory arrhythmia of the heart, Paul D. White, M.D., 531.

Cecum, Perforation of. A case report, Edward H. Risley, M.D., 612.

Chest Conditions resulting from war wounds and their surgical treatment, B. H. Alton, M.D., 369;

Child Hygiene in Missouri, 349.

Child Welfare and race regeneration, An advance movement in. The new clinic, J. Victor Haberman, A.B., M.D., M.S.D., 450.

Chronic Fatigue: diet, exercise and other factors in treatment. John Bryant, M.D., 629.

Cicatricial Contraction of lower jaw, with report of a case, Fat transplantation after excision of, William Reid Morrison, M.D., 529.

Clinical Bacteriology of the pneumostreptococcus group, D. M. Lewis, M.D., 240.

Clinical Importance of anatomical anomalies in biliary surgery, Daniel N. Eisendrath, A.B., M.D., 573;

"Common Cold," The, in relation to certain microorganisms, and its treatment with bacterial vaccines, Cleaveland Floyd, M.D., 389.

Comparative Statistics on physical examinations of pupils of the Boston public schools from December 1, 1915, to March 1, 1920, and remarks with especial reference to malnutrition, William H. Devine, M.D., 658.

Compensation for eye injuries, 206.

Complimentary Luncheon to General Leonard Wood, 358.

Compulsory Health Insurance, state medicine, or what?—The annual discourse. Hugh Cabot, M.D., F.A.C.S., 595.

Compulsory Vaccination, 96.

Congenital cystic kidney: report of a case, H. Green, M.D., 614.

Control of Influenza, An exploit in the measures used might serve as ideal to enforce during any pandemic, J. Madison Taylor, M.D., 601.

Co-ordination and expansion of federal health activities, 18.

Crippled Children, In the interest of, 46.

Critical Discussion of certain phases in the development of modern infant feeding: their influence upon present teachings, Lewis Webb Hill, M.D., 311.

Correspondence. Poisonous gases in warfare, Charles S. Butler, M.D., 133.
School nurses and boards of health, Merrill Champion, 77.

The use of alcohol in the treatment of influenza, Henry A. Christian, M.D., 544.
Ductless gland in U. S. soldiers during the European War, James Robb Church, 572.
An early case of pulmonary syphilis and its cure, Wm. Pearce Coues, M.D., 520.
The scarlet fever outbreak, Francis Geo. Curtis, M.D., 309.
Doctors' fees, Alice S. Cutler, M.D., 492.
"Palmam qui meruit ferat," Elbridge G. Cutler, M.D., 134.
Control of narcotic drug addiction, John P. Davin, M.D., 308.
Narcotic drug bills in New York Legislature, John P. Davin, M.D., 467.
Narcotic prescriptions should be written in ink, Chas. H. Davis, 520.
Appetite versus therapeutics, George Van Ness Dearborn, 212.
Appetite versus therapeutics, George Van Ness Dearborn, M.D., 413.
Compensation for eye injuries, Francis D. Donoghue, M.D., 211.
Treatment of influenza and pneumonia, Thomas M. Durrell, M.D., 310.
Medical defense in New York, George W. Gay, M.D., 594.
To the members of the medical profession, William T. Hopkins, John W. Trask, 24.
The medical profession and Leonard Wood, Henry Jackson, Harvey Cushing, Hugh Williams, Edwin A. Locke, Franklin G. Balch, John T. Bottomley, 519.
No physician nor surgeon as yet in the hall of fame, S. Adolphus Knopf, M.D., 467.
Anecdotes of Baron Larrey, Henry O. Marcy, 310.
Bacteriologic diagnosis of diphtheria, Edward Scott O'Keefe, M.D., 211.
Size and management of state hospitals, Robert Lewis Richards, 133.
Appetite versus therapeutics, Beverley Robinson, M.D., 310.
Research in physiology in California, Franklin Bache Stephenson, M.D., 544.
A physician needed, John B. Watson, 185.
Maternity benefits, G. E. Whitehill, M.D., 184.
A seventeenth century prescription, 466.

D

Dating of prescriptions for narcotic drugs, 587.

Dental Irritation, The medical aspect of, William A. Lurie, M.D., 359.

Development of Nursing during the past century, 666.

Diagnosis of the lesions of the nervous system produced by violent explosions in close proximity without external lesions, Tom A. Williams, M.B., C.M., Edin., 27.

Diet Reduction with retention of protein to relieve glycosuria in diabetes mellitus, R. L. Fenlon, Ph.G., M.D., 168.

Differential Diagnosis of diseases of the hip-joint in children, Arthur T. Legg, M.D., 602.

Difficulties in the diagnosis of meningitis, Harold W. Dana, M.D., 84.

Digitalis preparations, The potency of some French, Samuel A. Levine, M.D., 61.

Diphtheria, An experience with the Schick test and toxin-antitoxin and a plea for their use in the extinction of, Thomas E. Lilly, M.D., 110.

Diphtheria, Institutional control of, Francis A. Finnegan, M. D., 93.

Discussion, Edward Reynolds, M.D., 269.

Distinguished American physicians, 486.

Distinguished French physician, 102.

Disturbances caused by proteins, J. A. Turnbull, M.D., 493.

Doctors in uniform, Harold W. Dana, M.D., 521.

E

Economy in public health administration, 303.

Editorials. Coördination and expansion of federal health activities, 18; Venereal disease clinics in Massachusetts, 19; The Framingham health demonstration, 20; In the interest of crippled children, 46; The American College of Surgeons, 47; Extension courses in medicine, 48; The medical faculty of the University of Paris, 70; Personal safety of physicians, 71; A physician's responsibility, 71; Practical aid to the health campaign, 72; Compulsory vaccination, 96; Methyl alcohol poisoning, 97; The increase of venereal disease in Great Britain, 97; Boston Medical Library, 98; Maternity benefits, 121; The army medical service, 124; Important facts about cancer, 125; The physique of Harvard Freshmen, 126; Silent gastric cancer with general anasarca, 156; The untilled fields of public health, 157; Income tax computation, 180; Postgraduate medical instruction at the University of Wisconsin, 181; The prevalence of influenza, 202; The use of narcotic drugs, 205; Endowment fund for the Tide Over League, 205; Compensation for eye injuries, 206; Investigation of factories at Niagara Falls, 229; Regulations for the restriction of rats, 229; Vaccination legislation, Alfred Worcester, M.D., 246; Maternity benefits, 279; Infant welfare stations and education for motherhood, 280; Massachusetts General Hospital Out-Patient monthly meetings, 280; Economy in public health administration, 303; Medical treatment of disabled soldiers and sailors, 304; Training in home nursing, 305; Medical notes, 305; The problem of the community without a physician, 327; Botulism, 328; Child hygiene in Missouri, 349; Narcotic drug regulations, 350; How to conduct nutrition clinics and classes, 351; A physician as an ambassador, 351; The menace of European and Asiatic diseases, 401; South American surgeons, 402; The value of nitrous-oxide-oxygen anaesthesia in military and in civilian practice, 404; Westward migration of indigent tuberculous persons, 405; Medical missionary work in China, 406; The longevity of physicians, 406; Biography of Sir William Osler, 407; Registered physicians in Avon, Massachusetts, 407; The physician's responsibility for narcotic drugs issued by nurses, 435; The need of laboratories for diagnostic purposes, 435; The legal defence of physicians, 436; Postal privileges of the physician, 436; Medical notes, 436; The status of the defective delinquent since the war, 459; Two dermatological problems, 460; Endorsement of the post-graduate $2,000,000 campaign by the New York Association for Medical Education, 461; Medical Notes, 461; Medical public spirit of physicians, 485; Distinguished American physicians, 486; The league for preventive work, 487; Legislation on medical matters, 509; History of the State Health Department of Massachusetts, 510; The Philippine health service, 512; Proposed readjustment of our insanity laws, 514; Next meeting of the American Medical Association, 538; Forsyth Dental Infirmary for Children, 538; Service of the National Committee for the Prevention of Blindness, 539; Shortage of physicians, 563; Membership in medical societies, 564; Revival of household industries and domestic arts for reconstruction purposes, 564; Adoption of measures to insure the reporting of communicable disease, 564; The dating of prescriptions for narcotic drugs, 587; The one hundredth anniversary of the birthday of Florence Nightingale, 587; Organization of the Massachusetts Health Council, 588; Improvement in hospital service, 617; The treatment of tuberculosis in general hospitals, 618; Proposed Law to prevent illegal abortion, 618; Licensed attendants, 634; The importance of anti-rabic prophylactic treatment, 635; Medical legislation, 664; Sir William Osler as a man of letters, 664; Tuberculosis in childhood, 665; The development of nursing during the past century, 666; Transmission of tuberculosis, 667; A correction, 668.

Education and recreation in the army, 570.

Empyema, Surgical treatment of acute, by valve drainage, provided by flap of skin, fascia, and muscle, under local and paravertebral anesthesia, William Reid Morrison, M.D., 366.

Empyema, Surgical treatment of chronic, Wyman Whittemore, M.D., F.A.C.S., 396.

Encephalomyelitis, Note on the history of epidemic, F. G. Crookshank, M.D., M.R.C.P., 34.

Endorsement of the post-graduate $2,000,000 campaign by the New York Association for Medical Education, 461.

Endowment fund for the Tide Over League, 205.

Erratum, 334.

Ether Day Address. Traditions, standards, and prospects of the Massachusetts General Hospital, Richard C. Cabot, M.D., 287.

Examinations for appointment in the medical corps of the regular army, 105.

Experience with the Schick test and toxin-antitoxin and a plea for their use in the extinction of diphtheria, Thomas E. Lilly, M.D., 110.

Exploit in control of influenza. The measures used might serve as ideal to enforce during any pandemic, J. Madison Taylor, M.D., 601.

Extension courses in medicine, 48.

F

Fatigue, Chronic: diet, exercise and other factors in treatment, John Bryant, M.D., 629.

Fat Transplantation after excision of cicatricial contractions of lower jaw, with report of a case, William Reid Morrison, M.D., 529.

Fibroid Tumor of the uterus, The origin of the intrapelvic treatment of the stump after supravaginal hysterectomy for, J. Riddle Goffe, A.M., M.D., F.A.C.S., 53.

"Flat Foot" and other static foot troubles, Frederic J. Cotton, M.D., 1.

Foetal Asphyxia, Two cases of, with uncommon history, Charles J. Kickham, M.D., 94.

Forsyth Dental Infirmary for Children, 538.

Fracture, an unusual case of metacarpal, S. S. Dearborn, M.D., 178.

Fracture of the posterior tubercle of the astragalus vs. inconstant os trigonum, Frederick W. O'Brien, M.D., 548.

Framingham health demonstration, 20.

Frequency in urination, Frederick D. Davis, M.D., 11.

G

Gas Bacillus infection in civil practice, Ernest L. Hunt, M.D., F.A.C.S., 385.

Gas Bacillus infection with recovery, A severe case of, Donald S. Adams, M.D., 373.

Genito-Urinary Tract, Surgery of, observed abroad as Consultant in Urology, Base Section 2, France, Richard F. O'Neil, M.D., 213.

Glycosuria in diabetes mellitus, Diet reduction with retention of protein to relieve, R. L. Fenlon, Ph.G., M.D., 168.

Gonorrhea in the male, The treatment of, Arthur H. Crosbie, M.D., 116.

H

Hay Fever, Specific treatment of, Francis M. Rackemann, M.D., 295.

Health dividends you have drawn, Stanley H. Osborn, M.D., C.P.H., 517.

Hematuria, The significance of. A study of one hundred personal cases, Arthur L. Chute, M.D., 623.

Henry VIIIth as a patron of medicine, 103.

Hip-Joint, Differential diagnosis of diseases of, in children, Arthur T. Legg, M.D., 602.

History of the State Health Department of Massachusetts, 510.

Homans, Helen, Frederic A. Washburn, M.D., 417.

How Germany cares for her disabled, 76.

How to conduct nutrition clinics and classes, 351.

Hunter, John, A note on, at Oxford, Henry Viets, M.D., 545.

Hyperthyroidism, Loss of both eyes from the exophthalmos of, Frank H. Lahey, M.D., 427.

Hysteria, David Nathan, M.D., 66.

I

Ileostomy for postoperative obstruction following appendectomy, Edward P. Richardson, M.D., F.A.C.S., 362.

Illegitimacy—from the standpoint of the physician, Foster S. Kellogg, M.D., 191.

Improvement in hospital service, 617.

Income Tax computation, 180.

Increase of venereal disease in Great Britain, 97.

Infant Feeding, Critical discussion of certain phases in the development of modern: Their influence upon present teachings, Lewis Webb Hill, M.D., 311.

Infant Welfare, Next step in the campaign for. The education of the women of the nation for motherhood, Isaac W. Brewer, M.D., 276.

Infant Welfare Stations and education for motherhood, 280.

Infantile Scurvy during the past two years, A résumé of the literature of, John Lovett Morse, A.M., M.D., 428.

Infection of the Knee-Joint, A case of, treated by early and continuous active motion, F. B. Lund, M.D., 631.

Influenza, An exploit in control of. The measures used might serve as ideal to enforce during any pandemic, J. Madison Taylor, M.D., 601.

Influenza, Psychoses accompanying: clinical features and prognosis, Egbert W. Fell, M.D., 113.

"Influenzal Pneumonia," Pathology of, Frank P. McNamara, M.D., 171.

Intestinal Invalid. The mental factor in the chronic, John Bryant, M.D., 219.

Intestinal Obstruction, E. A. Codman, M.D., 420, 451.

Institutional Control of diphtheria, Francis A. Finnegan, M.D., 93.

Intrapelvic Treatment of the stump after supravaginal hysterectomy for fibroid tumor of the uterus, The origin of, J. Riddle Goffe, A.M., M.D., F.A.C.S., 53.

Investigation of factories at Niagara Falls, 229.

K

Kidney, Congenital cystic: report of a case, H. Green, M.D., 614.

Knee-Joint, A case of infection of, treated by early and continuous active motion, F. B. Lund, M.D., 631.

L

League for preventive work, 487.

Legal Defence of physicians, 436.

Legislation on medical matters, 509; Report of the Joint Committee on Legislation of the Massachusetts Medical Society and the Massachusetts Homeopathic Medical Society on maternity benefits, 285;

Lesions of the nervous system produced by violent explosions in close proximity without external lesions, Tom A. Williams, M.B., C.M., Edin., 27.

Licensed Attendants, 634.

Life and military campaigns of Baron Larrey, Some incidents in the (1766-1842), William Pearce Coues, M.D., 146.

Local Anaesthesia combined with morphine and scopolamine narcosis. Caesarean section under, Frederick C. Irving, M.D., 578.

Longevity of physicians, 406.

Loss of both eyes from the exophthalmos of hyperthyroidism, Frank H. Lahey, M.D., 427.

Lumbar Puncture, The technique of, Lawson G. Lowrey, A.M., M.D., 479.

Luncheon for Gen. Leonard Wood, 438.

M

Malignancy and Radiation. A study of the relation of the structure of cancer tissue to radiation, Frederick Bryant, M.D., 263.

Malnourished Child, The, in the public school, William R. P. Emerson, M.D., 655.

Massachusetts General Hospital out-patient monthly meetings, 280.

Massachusetts Medical Society. Meeting of Joint Committee on Legislation of the Massachusetts Medical Society and the Massachusetts Homeopathic Medical Society, December 30, 1919, 131; The Boston Medical Library, 160; Hampshire District Medical Society, 160; News items, 160; Report of the Joint Committee on State and National Legislation, 182; Hampshire District Medical Society, 184. News items, 184; Stated meeting of the Council, February 4, 1920, 251; Committee on Public Health. Promotion of Massachusetts Central Health Council, 307; Officers of the Society, 333; Directory of the Massachusetts Medical Society, 400; Directory of officers and fellows for 1920, 400; Committee on public health state-wide health work, 437; Annual meeting, Boston, June 8 and 9, 543; News from the district medical societies, 572; Program of annual meeting, Boston, June 8 and 9, 590; The annual discourse—Compulsory health insurance, state medicine or what? Hugh Cabot, M.D., F.A.C.S., 595; Worcester District Medical Society, 644; Annual meeting of the Council, June 8, 1920, 669.

Massachusetts State Committee, Council of National Defense, Medical Section. Final report of secretary and treasurer, 440.

Maternity benefits, 121, 279.

Meaning of the normal, A. Le Roy Johnson, D.M.D., 237.

Mechanical Supports in orthopedic conditions, Use and abuse of, Herman W. Marshall, M.D., 497.

Medical Aspect of dental irritation, William A. Lurie, M.D., 359.

Medical Faculty of the University of Paris, 70.

Medical Legislation, 661.

Medical Missionary Work in China, 406.

Medical Progress. Report of recent progress in ophthalmology, Edmund W. Clap, M.D., 12.

Medical Public Spirit of physicians, 185.

Medical Treatment of disabled soldiers and sailors, 304.

Medical Veterans of the World War, 334.

Membership in medical societies, 561.

Menace of European and Asiatic diseases, 401.

Meningitis, Difficulties in the diagnosis of, Harold W. Dana, M.D., 84.

Mental Factor in the chronic intestinal invalid, John Bryant, M.D., 219.

Methyl alcohol poisoning, 97.

Milk-Borne Epidemic of typhoid fever and the demonstrated value of the Widal reaction in detecting a typhoid carrier, Edward B. Bigelow, M.D., and Gustaf L. Berg, 481.

Milk Modifications, The calorie as a unit in figuring, Tracy Jackson Putnam, A.B., Boston, 107.

Milk situation, Howard Swift, 447.

Miscellany. Resume of communicable diseases for September, 1919, 51; How Germany cares for her disabled, 76; A distinguished French physician, 102; Henry VIIIth as a patron of medicine, 103; Examination for appointment in the medical corps of the regular army, 105; Emma B. Culbertson, A.M., M.D., 132; United States Civil Service examination, 185; New England Women's Medical Society, 260; Segregation of the feeble-minded, 261, Report of the Joint Committee on Legislation of the Massachusetts Medical Society and the Massachusetts Homeopathic Medical Society on Maternity benefits, 285; Medical veterans of the World War, 334; Erratum, 334; Report upon health education by the Joint Committee on Legislation of the Massachusetts Medical Society and the Massachusetts Homeopathic Medical Society, 356; Resolutions on the death of Dr. Southard, 357; United States civil service examinations, 357; Complimentary luncheon to General Leonard Wood, 358; Transportation to meeting of American Medical Association, New Orleans, April 26 to 30, 358; United States civil service examination, 414; Luncheon for General Leonard Wood, 438; Massachusetts State Committee Council of National Defense, Medical Section. Final report of secretary and treasurer, 440; Resolutions on the death of Dr. Elmer E. Southard, 441; United States civil service examination, 468; Report of the Joint Committee on State and National Legislation of the Massachusetts Medical Society and the Massachusetts Homeopathic Medical Society, 491; Health dividends you have drawn, Stanley H. Osborn, M.D., C.P.H., 517; Ancient answers to present problems, 543; Education and recreation in the army, 570; American Climatological and Clinical Association, 622; Resolution on the death of Dr. Elmer Ernest Southard, 644.

Myelitis, An unusual case of, Arthur L. Kinne, M.D., 398.

N

Narcotic drug regulations, 350.

Need of laboratories for diagnostic purposes, 435.

Nephritis, Acute, by absorption of household disinfectants, Henry A. Jones, M.D., 68.

Neurological sequelae, Report of, of influenza in the Boston City Hospital Nurological Out-Patient Department from July, 1918, to July, 1919, Mabel D. Ordway, M.D., 194.

Neurosyphilis, (General paresis and cerebrospinal syphilis), Result of treatment of. Report of patients' condition four years or more after leaving hospital, H. C. Solomon, M.D., 60.

New England Surgical Society, Presidential address at the annual meeting of the, Boston, October 28 and 29, 1919, John B. Wheeler, M.D., 25.

New England Women's Medical Society, 260.

Next Step in the campaign for infant welfare. The education of the women of the nation for motherhood, Isaac W. Brewer, M.D., 276.

Normal, Meaning of the, A. Le Roy Johnson, D.M.D., 237.

Nitrous-Oxide-Oxygen Anaesthesia, The value of, in military and in civilian practice, 404.

Note on the history of epidemic encephalomyelitis, F. G. Crookshank, M.D., M.R.C.P., 34

Notes on the use of the portable respiratory apparatus. Francis G. Benedict, 243.

Nutrition, Bodily mechanics and, Lloyd T. Brown, M.D., F.A.C.S., 187.

O

Obituaries. Julius Stimpson Clark, M.D., 285; Wallace Harlow Deane, M.D., 490; Thomas Amory de Blois, M.D., 332; John Henry Gifford, M.D., 24; Warren Randall Gilman, M.D., 579; Richard James Plumer Goodwin, M.D., 517; Philip Coombs Knapp, M.D., 283; Sir William Osler, 232; Melvin George Overlock, M.D., 284; Emile Poirier, M.D., 579; Elmer Ernest Southard, A.M., M.D., Sc.D., 330; Elmer Ernest Southard, M.D., 568; Edward Thayer Twitchell, M.D., 442; George L. Underwood, M.D., 490.

Obstetrics, Anaesthesia in, Paul Appleton, M.D., 321.

One Hundredth Anniversary of the birthday of Florence Nightingale, 587.

Organization of the Massachusetts Health Council, 588.

Origin of the intrapelvic treatment of the stump after supravaginal hysterectomy for fibroid tumor of the uterus, J. Riddle Goffe, A.M., M.D., F.A.C.S., 53.

Orthopedic Conditions, Use and abuse of mechanical supports in, Herman W. Marshall, M.D., 497.

Osler, Sir William, as a man of letters, 664.

Osler as a bibliophile, Edward C. Streeter, M.D., 335.

Osler as his students knew him, Joseph H. Pratt, M.D., 338.

Osler in the early days at the Johns Hopkins Hospital, W. T. Councilman, M.D., 341.

Oxford, A note on John Hunter at, Henry Viets, M.D., 515.

P

"Palmam Qui Meruit Ferat," Elbridge G. Cutler, M.D., 134.

Pathology of "influenzal pneumonia," Frank P. McNamara, M.D., 171.

Pectoralis Minor Muscle, Rupture of, William Pearce Coues, M.D., 200.

Perforation of the Cecum. A case report, Edward H. Risley, M.D., 612.

Personal safety of physicians, 71.

Philippine health service, 512.

Physician as an ambassador, 351.

Physician's responsibility, 71.

Physician's responsibility for narcotic drugs issued by nurses, 435.

Physique of Harvard freshmen, 126.

Placental tumor, Reginald Dimock Margeson, M.D., 200.

Pneumonia, The specific diagnosis and treatment of acute lobar, Lesley H. Spooner, M.D., 224.

Pneumo-streptococcus Group, The clinical bacteriology of, D. M. Lewis, M.D., 240.

Poisonous Gases in warfare, Charles S. Butler, M.D., 133.

Possibilities of Carrel-Dakin technique in civil life, Allen G. Rice, M.D., 174.

Postal privileges of the physician, 436.

Post-graduate medical instruction at the University of Wisconsin, 181.

Potency of some French digitalis preparations, Samuel A. Levine, M.D., 64.

Practical Aid to the health campaign, 72.

Present Needs of the tuberculosis campaign, John B. Hawes, 2nd, M.D., 161.

Presidential Address at the annual meeting of the New England Surgical Society, Boston, October 28 and 29, 1919. John B. Wheeler, M.D., 25.

Prevalence of influenza, 202.

Prevention of Blindness, Service of the National Committee for the, 539.

Prince of Profiteers, Dr. Jacques Belhomme, J. W. Courtney, M.D., 606.

Principles and Posture, First paper (with foreword by E. G. Brackett, M.D.), Mabel Elsworth Todd, 645.

Problem of the community without a physician, 327.

Product of a urological clinic, William C. Quinby, M.D., 469, 502, 525, 551.

Proposed Law to prevent illegal abortion, 618.

Prostatism, Edward L. Keyes, Jr., M.D., 79.

Proteins, Disturbances caused by, J. A. Turnbull, M.D., 493.

Psychical Research and the physician, J. Danforth Taylor, M.D., 610.

Psychoses accompanying influenza: clinical features and prognosis, Egbert W. Fell, M.D., 113.

Public Health, Untilled fields of,157.

R

Radiation, Malignancy and. A study of the relation of the structure of cancer tissue to radiation, Frederick Bryant, M.D., 263.

Rats, Regulation for the restriction of, 229.

Readjustment of our insanity laws, Proposed, 514.

Registered Physician in Avon, Massachusetts, 407.

Relation of Teeth to general health, Charles L. Lawrence, M.D., 443.

Renal Function, Blood plasma chlorides versus, W. C. Rappleye, M.D., 89.

Renal Function in vascular hypertension, James P. O'Hare, M.D., 345.

Report upon health education by the Joint Committee on Legislation of the Massachusetts Medical Society and the Massachusetts Homeopathic Medical Society, 356.

Report of the Joint Committee on State and National Legislation of the Massachusetts Medical Society and the Massachusetts Homeopathic Medical Society, 491.

Report of neurological sequelae of influenza in the Boston City Hospital Neurological Out-Patient Department from July, 1918, to July, 1919, Mabel D. Ordway, M.D., 191.

Resolutions on the death of Dr. Elmer Southard, 357, 441.

Respiration Apparatus, Notes on the use of the portable, Francis G. Benedict, 243.

Result of treatment of neurosyphilis (general paresis and cerebrospinal syphilis). Report of patients' condition four years or more after leaving hospital, H. C. Solomon, M.D., 60.

Resume of communicable diseases for September, 1919, 51.

Resume of the literature of infantile scurvy during the past two years, John Lovett Morse, A.M., M.D., 428.

Revival of household industries and domestic arts for reconstruction purposes, 564.

Rupture of the pectoralis minor muscle, William Pearce Coues, M.D., 200.

Rupture of the rectus abdominis muscle, R. J. Behan, M.D., 660.

S

Schick Test, An experience with, and toxin-antitoxin, and a plea for their use in the extinction of diphtheria, Thomas E. Lilly, M.D., 110.

Segregation of the feeble-minded, 261.

Severe Case of gas bacillus infection with recovery, Donald S. Adams, M.D., 373.

Society Reports. Proceedings of the New England Branch of the American Urological Association. Meeting November 4, 1919, 531, 556, 584.

Southard, Dr. Elmer Ernest, Resolution on the death of, 644.

Significance of Hematuria, The. A study of one hundred personal cases, Arthur L. Chute, M.D., 623.

Specific Diagnosis and treatment of acute lobar pneumonia, Lesley H. Spooner, M.D., 224.

Specific Treatment of hay fever, Francis M. Rackemann, M.D., 295.

Spinal Fractures that are not associated with cord symptoms, Treatment of back injuries with special reference to, Herman W. Marshall, M.D., 140.

State Hospital, Size and management of, Robert Lewis Richards, 133.

Status of the defective delinquent since the war, 159.

Supporting the Pelvic Floor to prevent and overcome uterine prolapse, DeWitt G. Wilcox, M.D., F.A.C.S., 425.

Surgeons, South American, 402.

Surgery of the genito-urinary tract observed abroad as Consultant in Urology, Base Section 2, France, Richard F. O'Neil, M.D., 213.

Surgical Treatment of acute empyema by valve drainage, provided by flap of skin, fascia, and muscle, under local and paravertebral anesthesia, William Reid Morrison, M.D., 306.

Surgical Treatment of chronic empyema, Wyman Whittemore, M.D., F.A.C.S., 396.

Surgical Treatment of peptic ulcer, P. E. Truesdale, M.D., 135.

Syphilis, Some surgical aspects of, William Pearce Coues, M.D., 582.

T

Technique of lumbar puncture, Lawson G. Lowrey, A.M., M.D., 479.

Teeth, Relation of, to general health, Charles L. Lawrence, M.D., 443.

Tissue Injury an important factor in the development of tuberculosis, Herbert F. Gammons, M.D., 119.

Training in home nursing, 305.

Transportation to meeting of American Medical Association, New Orleans, April 26 to 30, 358.

Treatment of back injuries with special reference to spinal fractures that are not associated with cord symptoms, Herman W. Marshall, M.D., 140.

Treatment of chronic ulcers, Frank E. Stowell, M.D., 176.

Treatment of gonorrhea in the male, Arthur H. Crosbie, M.D., 116.

Treatment of tuberculosis in general hospitals, 618.

Tuberculosis in childhood, 665; Transmission of, 667.

Tuberculosis Campaign, Present needs of, John B. Hawes, 2nd, M.D., 161.

Tumor of the sacrum, A case of, Joel E. Goldthwait, M.D., 301.

Two Cases of foetal asphyxia with uncommon history, Charles J. Kickham, M.D., 94.

Two dermatological problems, 460.

Typhoid Fever, A milk-borne epidemic of, and the demonstrated value of the Widal reaction in detecting a typhoid carrier, Edward B. Bigelow, M.D., and Gustaf L. Berg, 481.

U

Ulcer, Surgical treatment of peptic, P. E. Truesdale, M.D., 135

Ulcers, Treatment of chronic, Frank E. Stowell, M.D., 176.

United States civil service examination, 185, 357, 414, 468.

Unusual Case of metacarpal fracture, S. S. Dearborn, M.D., 178.

Urination, Frequency of, Frederick D. Davis, M.D., 11.

Urological Clinic, Product of a, William C. Quinby, M.D., 469, 502, 525, 551.

Use and Abuse of mechanical supports in orthopedic conditions, Herman W. Marshall, M.D., 497.

Use of Blood and blood serum in the treatment of disease, C. K. Johnson, M.D., 482.

Use of narcotic drugs, 205.

Uterine Prolapse, Supporting the pelvic floor to prevent and overcome, De Witt G. Wilcox, M.D., F.A.C.S., 425.

V

Vaccination legislation, Alfred Worcester, M.D., 246.

Vascular Hypertension, Renal function, James P. O'Hare, M.D., 345.

Venereal Disease clinics in Massachusetts, 19.

W

War Wounds and their surgical treatment, Chest conditions resulting from, B. H. Alton, M.D., 369.

Westward Migration of indigent tuberculous persons, 405.

Widal Reaction in detecting a typhoid carrier, A milk-borne epidemic of typhoid fever and the demonstrated value of, Edward B. Bigelow, M.D., and Gustaf L. Berg, 481.

X

X-ray diagnosis and therapy, Esther M. Sundelof, M.D., 393.